Open Access strategies of Swiss partners

Minimum OA requirements of funders

Accepted manuscript in PubmedCentral upon acceptance, made publicly available no later than 12 months after publication

Accepted manuscript no later than 6 months after publication

Horizon 2020
European Union funding for Research & Innovation

STM: Accepted manuscript no later than 6 months after publication

Swiss national Open Access strategy

Goal: “[...] by 2024, all scholarly publication activity in Switzerland should be OA, all scholarly publications funded by public money must be freely accessible on the internet. The OA landscape will consist of a mix of OA models.”

Advantages of Open Access:

- > Higher visibility of research results
- > Better knowledge transfer
- > Higher research efficiency
- > Improving conditions for collaboration
- > First step to open science
- > Economic benefits
- > Accelerating scientific progress

Comparison of APCs

TABLE 2. Comparison of APCs charged by types of journals providing OA.

Year	OA journals—published by nonsubscription publishers (mean)	Full-OA journals—published by subscription publishers (mean)	Hybrid journals—published by subscription publishers (mean)
2010	£1,141	£1,154	£1,842
2011	£1,281	£1,148	£1,905
2012	£1,227	£1,121	£1,873
2013	£1,106	£1,152	£1,857
2014	£1,068	£1,216	£1,799
5-year mean	£1,136	£1,164	£1,849

Should authors publish in hybrid OA journals?

Pro

- > Compliance with funder mandates
- > Publishing in an established journal and profit from some of the advantages of open access

Contra

- > High APC costs
- > Double Dipping
- > Not as good findability as Gold OA

Questions

- > Who owns the copyrights for the article? Do you have to assign your copyrights to the publisher?
  - > Should I pay the APCs for a hybrid publication or is it sufficient to self-archive the post-print on a repository.
