

Open Access at the University of Bern

We provide consultancy services, training as well as technical and organisational support for Open Access electronic publishing

BORIS

- Publication and self-archiving
- Verifying of self-archiving policies and metadata
- Technical and organisational support for researchers and institutes
- Portal for the research evaluation
- Registration of ORCID iDs

Bern Open Publishing

- BOP Serials: Publication platform for electronic journals and series
- Guidance on publication processes, formal standards, open access licences, contracts, file formats and copyright questions
- Registration in Sherpa/Romeo, Directory of Open Access Journals and subject-relevant databases
- Provision of persistent identifiers (ISSN, ISBN, DOI)
- Technical support for publishing journals and series
- Long-term archiving (LOCKSS)
- Negotiating with external service providers (print and distribution of printed issues, templates, copy-editing and layout design)

E-Theses

- Publication platform for theses
- Long-term archiving at the Swiss National Library
- Advice on suitable Open Access licences
- Review of publishing agreements

Research Data

- Publication platform for research data (in progress)
- Guidance on research data publication, file formats, data management plans and funding requirements

Twitter @BORIS_UniBe
www.unibe.ch/ub/openscience

Licence: Text CC BY, Icons © UB Bern

u^b

b
UNIVERSITÄT
BERN

Universitätsbibliothek