

Enacting Global Transformation Across Cultures: Building Peace through Collaborative Methodologies and Stories

 (/talks/id/8d074474-9b3b-4951-ac0b-34d894eff19b?)

A collaborative conference of the Enacting Global Transformation Initiative & the Centre for International Studies in partnership with Faculty of Education, University of Johannesburg, & Peace One Day.

This conference, on the eve of the 30th anniversary of the Fall of the Berlin Wall, is convened in a perilous global climate. The gains of the end of the Cold War are rapidly eroding and the foundations of international relations are being rattled – daily. The principles of peace and justice and the common values of humanity at the basis of the multilateral system are threatened. This event invites us all to dialogue about new approaches, innovations and methodologies to respond to complex challenges of international peace and security.

We will be filming and livestreaming the event. Join us to share your input – Live, or online at:
