Practitioners in Sustainability Accounting Education – a transdisciplinary teaching approach

TÖRNER, Lukas

Address the need for normative and technical guidance in sustainability accounting education while considering the importance of the dynamic practical field.

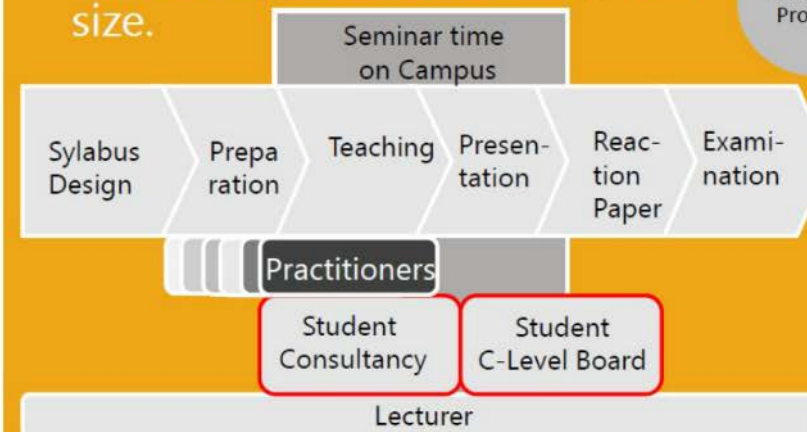

METHODS

1. systematic review of relevant topics & roles in sustainability accounting education
2. a seminar design

RESULTS

guidelines for a transdisciplinary scalable seminar on sustainability accounting for an interdisciplinary student body, which involves practitioners

2 Transdisciplinary sustainability accounting education draws on new expertise of practitioners to gain technical and ethical knowledge for interdisciplinary accounting students of any class size.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Participate in CA workshops and training sessions. The CA offers excellent opportunities for professional development in leadership and organisational change for sustainability.

DISSEMINATION AND OUTREACH

Make use of various communication channels and share your achievements with an international community through the CA Newsletter, website and joint scientific publications.

CA NEWSLETTER

Receive key information about the latest developments and events regarding sustainability and higher education in Europe and beyond as well as CA members' news and achievements.

ACTIVITIES/ BENEFITS

POLICY DEVELOPMENTS

The CA engages and participates in international gatherings and dialogues that influence higher education policy. Members are encouraged to contribute to these activities (e.g. observer status at UNESCO, UNECE, IAU, etc.).

CONFERENCES AND SEMINARS

Participate in events where we can discuss issues at the forefront of sustainability in higher education. Benefit from discounts for the CA Annual Conference, which combines the opportunity to present papers with dedicated time for informal networking and interactive idea sharing.

GOVERNANCE OPPORTUNITIES

Participate in and be part of the CA Advisory Board, task forces and working groups.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Receive "CA Micro Funds" to fund joint initiatives with other members such as workshops, conferences, publications, etc.

FUNDING AND RESEARCH

Participate in collaborative European research projects and joint bidding with other institutional members.

THANK YOU!
