In 2014, the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) experienced a confined outbreak of Ebola.

Daily Incidence of New Cases

EARLY OUTBREAK
Disease propagates contagiously.

FOUR WEEKS
Control interventions in place.

END OF OUTBREAK
Contagious spread halts.

Mathematical modeling suggests that the rapid response limited further spread of Ebola in DRC within 4 weeks.

CONCLUSION